

BCCC Networking Session – Comox Valley

Calling all cyclists in the Comox Valley and Surrounding Area

The BCCC is pleased to hold a networking meeting jointly with the Comox Valley Cycling Task Force in the Comox Valley.

When : Saturday, December 6, 2008 – 9:00 AM
Where: Comox Recreation Centre – 1855 Noel Ave, Comox

Meeting Agenda

Morning: Presentations by BCCC

Introduction	9:00 am to 9:15 am
Presentations	9:15 am to 12:00 pm
Preparing for the Third Wave of Cyclists	Jack Becker
What makes an Infrastructure a Third Wave of Cyclists Design
Jack Becker
You will Never Get them out of their Cars	Richard Campbell / J Becker
Municipalities have a Choice in its Transportation Plan for the Future
Jack Becker
Bringing a Bit of Copenhagen to New York	Brian Collier
The BC Recreational Trails Strategy	(to be confirmed)
Lunch - Bring your own	12:30 pm to 1:00 pm

Afternoon: Networking Session

Networking and discussion with the Comox Valley Cycling Task Force and the Local Cycling Community

1:00 pm to 3:00 pm

BCCC - Organization, Purpose, Directions

Comox Valley Cycling Task Force -

Organization, Purpose, Directions

Soaring Eagle Cycling Routes –North Vancouver Island, E&N Railway

Open Discussion

Local Issues and Opportunities – Open Discussion

Chip sealing of rural roads

Local Cycling Coalitions - Organizations, Purpose, Directions

Opportunities to work together - – Open Discussion

BCCC Board Meeting (Open to all to participate) pm

3:00 pm to 4:00

Informal discussion over (no host) dinner for anyone interested following the meeting, at a restaurant to be announced.

Many thanks to the Comox Recreation Commission for providing the room for the meeting free of charge.

British Columbia Cycling Coalition Provincial Advocates for Transportational Cycling http://www.bccc.bc.ca/	With thanks to the Comox Valley Cycling Task Force for their support for this meeting
---	--